Baby Sanctuary

it's every child's birthright to belong

Computers, Events, Deal or no Deal, Chillies, Job creation & Madiba week

No ways! If it wasn't swimming lessons, pet therapy, bio-kinetics and more ... our children are now getting computer lessons, with sincere thanks to Stimuzone.

September - Get your vibe on!

Did you know that Don Vino has OVER 60k followers on Facebook? So, who is Don Vino anyway and why should I go to his concert in September?

Firstly, the organisers have selected Heartlands as a beneficiary, so having fun means supporting our little ones. Don Vino is best known for his Saxy Vibes show. Don grew up in an area called Epping Forest, a part of Elsies River, Cape Town. His first instrument was the banjo, then he switched to the trumpet before he moved to saxophone at the age of 15.

As one of SA's top Jazz Saxophonists/Song Writer/Composer/Producer/ R&B/ and Gospel, this is one concert you cannot afford to miss! Tickets only R150 available on Quicket

The beautiful Espresso presenter- thank you Zoe Brown for selecting us, you are amazing!

CHILLIES AND JOB CREATION

Who would have thought that in such early days with our Seeds of Hope Garden we already helping in sustaining jobs! And how you ask? We received a PRE-ORDER of Chillies from Backyard Farms. Backyard Farms supply chilli plants, compost and fertiliser as well as basic training to support ladies from the more rural areas, where job opportunities are scarce.

They then buy back the chillis and other produce on a monthly basis to use in their Backyard Farm sauces - which of course means more income, to support these lady entrepreneurs, and more of Backyard Farms taking on more partners. Their partners are individuals with a small backyard or small teams working in a community garden or space. Their only requisite is that they are female and have a love for growing things, especially chillies!

MADIBA WEEK

Well, what can we say except a MASSIVE thank you to each and everyone who supported us during Madiba week. AND for those of you who signed up for our various campaigns, thank you for your ongoing commitment. For more information, and perhaps a tour to see these tax-deductible campaigns, please email nikki@heartlandsbaby.org
